

BITS OF NEWS FROM ALL OVER

London. — Frank Bostock, showman, died today. Influenza.

Milwaukee, Wis.—Women suffrage speakers are having some campaign here—they invade the factory, dock and department store districts and street corners during noon hour daily.

Bangor, Me.—Jas. Jens drove his horse at breakneck speed 3 miles to escape pack of wolves attracted by smell of fresh meat he had. He saved the meat.

Yonkers, N. Y.—Gov. Hiram Johnson addressed crowd here today on a trip through Chester county.

North Vernon, Ind.—Chas. McQuaid, 71, and brother, John, 59, murdered at their home near here by stranger who called them to door and hit them with heavy club. Man escaped.

Milwaukee, Wis.—Municipal council will place a ban on screamy auto horns because they scare pedestrians.

Grass Range, Mont.—James W. Briggs shot and killed his wife. Self defense claimed.

St. Paul.—6 persons injured when crossed wires set fire to street car. Motorman may die.

Columbus, O.—7,000 Catholics will parade through streets here Sunday in protest against blasphemy and indecent language.

Kansas City, Mo.—J. F. Minahan, Detroit, yardmaster for Wabash Ry., shot and killed here.

Beach, N. D.—Fire destroyed Golden Valley Advance building and newspaper plant. $35,000 loss.

Richmond, Ky.—James Farris, wealthy farmer, shot and killed in street. Breckenridge Maupin, another wealthy farmer, arrested.

New York.—Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, head of Women's National Democratic League, seriously ill. May have operation.

Newport News, Va.—First Sergeant Mack C. Napier, 35th company, coast artillery, shot and killed himself in room at Ft. Munroe.

Mason City, Ia.—Tony Plep-lapes, employ of Lehigh cement plant, buried under 36 ft. of coal. Body recovered 16 hours later.

Santiago, Chile.—Court of appeals has annulled election of all city officers on account of frauds.

Cologne, Germany.—Frost has destroyed vines valued at millions in Rhine valley and vicinity.

Milwaukee.—Tony Scudelari, 27, Italian mechanic, who was injured in accident that killed Bruce-Brown, died today. Ralph De Palma spent good night.

New York.—Women's Dep't., Republican Nat'l Committee, has opened high tariff school.

New York.—Ha Yung Quai, Chinese suffragette and wife of Wm. Bromberger, Chicago engineer, is here. Says Chinese suffragettes are less militant than American sisters.

New York.—Housewives' League will not buy any eggs until they are 35 cents a dozen or any lamb or mutton until 18 cents is reached.

New York.—Mrs. Martin